RESOLUTION 24-01

WHEREAS, under section 425 of the Real Property Tax Law (hereinafter “RPTL”), the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance has the duty to verify the eligibility of recipients of the STAR exemption; and

WHEREAS, under sections 200-a and 425 of the RPTL, a taxpayer who is dissatisfied with a final determination issued by the Department may appeal it to the State Board of Real Property Tax Services (hereinafter “State Board”), which has the power to review the appeal and determine the taxpayers' eligibility for the STAR exemption in question; and

WHEREAS, taxpayers by the name of [REDACTED] (hereinafter appellants) were duly notified that the Department had made a final determination that appellants were ineligible for the 2022 Enhanced STAR exemption pursuant to section 425 of the RPTL, and that review of this determination could be obtained by filing an appeal with the State Board; and

WHEREAS, appellants filed an appeal of this determination, a copy of which has been provided to the State Board along with any documentation submitted in support thereof; and

WHEREAS, staff of the Office of Real Property Tax Services (“ORPTS”) has reviewed the appeal and any documentation submitted in support thereof, and has prepared a memorandum summarizing the results of its review, a copy of which has been also provided to the State Board; and

WHEREAS, the State Board has reviewed the appeal and any documentation submitted in support thereof, and has reviewed the ORPTS staff recommendation thereon; and

WHEREAS, the State Board agrees with and accepts the conclusions and the recommendations contained in the ORPTS staff memorandum; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the State Board hereby adopts the conclusions and recommendations contained in the ORPTS staff memorandum, a copy of which is attached hereto, as Findings and Determinations of the State Board, to the same extent as if fully set forth herein; and, be it further

RESOLVED, that the State Board affirms the Department’s determination that appellants are not eligible for the Enhanced STAR exemption in question.

RESOLUTION 24-14

WHEREAS, under section 425 of the Real Property Tax Law (hereinafter “RPTL”), the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance has the duty to verify the eligibility of recipients of the STAR exemption; and

WHEREAS, under sections 200-a and 425 of the RPTL, a taxpayer who is dissatisfied with a final determination issued by the Department may appeal it to the State Board of Real Property Tax Services (hereinafter “State Board”), which has the power to review the appeal and determine the appellants’ eligibility for the STAR exemption in question; and

WHEREAS, taxpayers by the name of [REDACTED] (hereinafter “appellants”) were duly notified that the Department had made a final determination that appellants were ineligible for the 2022 Enhanced STAR exemption pursuant to section 425 of the RPTL, and that review of this determination could be obtained by filing an appeal with the State Board; and

WHEREAS, appellants filed an appeal of this determination, a copy of which has been provided to the State Board along with any documentation submitted in support thereof, and

WHEREAS, staff of the Office of Real Property Tax Services (“ORPTS”) has reviewed the appeal and any documentation submitted in support thereof, and has prepared a memorandum summarizing the results of its review, a copy of which has been also provided to the State Board; and

WHEREAS, the State Board has reviewed the appeal and any documentation submitted in support thereof, and has reviewed the ORPTS staff recommendation thereon, and

WHEREAS, the State Board agrees with and accepts the conclusions and the recommendations contained in the ORPTS staff memorandum; now therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the State Board hereby adopts the conclusions and recommendations contained in the ORPTS staff memorandum, a copy of which is attached hereto, as Findings and Determinations of the State Board, to the same extent as if fully set forth herein; and, be it further

RESOLVED, that the State Board affirms the Department’s determination that appellants are not eligible for the Enhanced STAR exemption in question.
